

- Problem-solving
 - Leadership
 - Critical thinking
-

Emotional & Experiential Impact

Students gain a deeper understanding of:

- How difficult survival truly was
- The risks families took for land and opportunity
- The role of teamwork and family units
- The emotional weight of success—or failure

Many students leave with a new perspective:

“Would I have made it?”

Why Teachers Love This Program

- Keeps students fully engaged
 - Works for mixed-age groups
 - Reinforces curriculum standards
 - Encourages active participation
 - Memorable and meaningful learning experience
 - Easily integrates into history units or special event days
-

Program Details

Grade Levels: K–12 (adaptable by complexity)

Group Size: Flexible (small groups recommended for rotations)

Program Length:

- Single rotation (30–60 minutes)
- Half-day or full-day series available

Location Requirements:

Indoor or outdoor space with room for station setup

Customization Options

Programs can be tailored for:

- Homeschool groups
 - Public and private schools
 - Museums and historic sites
 - Libraries and community programs
 - One-day immersive history events
-

Grant-Friendly Language

This program provides:

- Experiential, inquiry-based learning
 - Curriculum-aligned historical interpretation
 - Hands-on engagement with primary concepts of American history
 - Opportunities for critical thinking and collaborative learning
 - Educational enrichment beyond traditional classroom instruction
-

This is more than a program.

It is a living experience— one where students step into the boots of the past, face real challenges, and walk away with a deeper understanding of history than any textbook could provide.

Because history was never meant to sit quietly behind glass.